

Strongwell, the world leader in the production and fabrication of composite products, commits to the continual improvements of its environmental management system. We comply with federal, state, and local regulatory requirements. We continually strive to reduce pollution and conserve resources. We commit to being a good neighbor in all communities where we operate.

---

G. David Oakley, President and CEO

August 21, 2023

---

Date